To

The Chief Secretary,
to the Government of Mysore, Bangalore.

S i r,

In sending herewith the application of Mr. Kerlamangalam Sreekantayya to edit, print and publish a Kannada monthly called " Brahmana ", I have much pleasure in testifying to his knowledge of the Hindu Sastras and his capacity to conduct the journal. As it is only a monthly and as it will not deal with politics, I request you to be so good as to do away with police and magisterial enquiries and grant the permission at once as ordinary mere declaration before a Magistrate is sufficient for a - non - political journal.

Thanking you in anticipation,

I beg to remain,

Sir,

May I request you to kindly grant me permission under the Mysore Press Regulation of 1908 to edit, print and publish in the State of Mysore a monthly entitled " Brahmana " in the Kannada Language? It will deal only with social and dharmic matters and will eschew politics. I am well versed in Hindu Sastras and have contributed articles on social and dharmic matters to various papers and journals. I shall feel obliged for very early orders in the matter.

With reference to your letter No.479/C.B.12-34-35 dated 1st/3rd September 1934, calling for a confidential report on the character and antecedents of one Mr. Karlamangalam Srikantiah c/o "Veerakesari Office", Shankarpur, Bangalore City who has applied for permission to edit, print and publish a monthly journal in Kannada styled "Brahmana", I have the honour to state that the City Superintendent of Police reports that the applicant is the son of one Subbiah of Karlamangalam. He is, it is reported, an occasional visitor to Bangalore City. During the years 1929-30 and 1930-31 he was taking active part in the Congress activities in the Bangalore City and the neighbouring Taluks. It is reported that he has of late ceased to participate in political activities and appears to be a Sanatanist, that since the adoption of the cause of the Harijans by Mahatma Gandhi, he has become opposed to the principles of the Indian National Congress.
